

WORKSHOP ON “THE EVOLVING CLASSROOM”

Organised by Team Le Frehindi

“All the effort in the world won’t matter if you are not inspired”, keeping this spirit alive, a workshop was organized by “Le Frehindi” at Bal Bharti School, Dwarka where French teachers from various schools were invited. The theme of the workshop was “the evolving classroom” which was conducted by Mr. Sushant Mishra professor at Jawaharlal Nehru University. The session was held on traditional and technology based pedagogy used in classrooms and how teachers can make it more interesting and efficient, to involve and engage the students. Later, Team “Le Frehindi” introduced their various upcoming programs like spell bee competition, exchange program, cultural trips etc. All the teachers were given an appreciation certificate and a gift for their time valuing presence. This workshop showcased a vision to all the teachers on which they can now perform in a better way. It was an interesting and informative session which filled enthusiasm and inspiration in teachers.
